POLITICAL STRADDLERS.

Members of the Missouri Legislature are proving to be as adroit in ground and lofty political tumbling as some of the Harrison newspapers and self-styled "straightout Democrats" of Nevada in the last campaign. The Missouri Senators did not agree on the Anti Option bill. Cockrell voted for the bill and Vest voted against it. The Legislature thought it part of its duty to indorse the Senators so Cockrell was commended for favoring the Anti Option bill and Vest for opposing it.

People will laugh at this "Missouri Straddle," yet the Missourians are not even entitled to the credit of originality in the matter. They were simply following the example of Nevada. Two years ago, it will be remembered, a resolution was introduced in the Legislature endorsing the action of Senators Stewart and Jones in opposing the Force bill An admirer of Representative Bartine thought the Senators should not have all the praise, so he offered a resolution approving the action of Mr. Bartine in voting for the Force bill, and both resolutions were adopted. The Nevada, not the Missouri, Legislature is therefore entitled to whatever credit or honor there may be in originating this straddling feat. If Nevada is small, it has men in and out of the Legislature from whom big Missouri might learn much in political quackery.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The members of the Legislature should bear in mind that they are making a record for themselves. The vote of each individual member is recorded on every measure good, bad or indifferent, that comes before the body. The political party with which a member affiliates cannot be held responsible for his action unless it endorses it. Members may advocate or oppose measures, as the case may be, but they cannot saddle the responsibility of their acts on the party which elected them unless it assumes that responsibility by endorsing the course of the member.

The present Assembly was elected by the Silver party. In many counties the candidates were pledged to reform abuses that were known to exist and to economize in the expenditure of public funds. The atmosphere of the State Capital does not seem to be adapted to these things and it appears to be difficult to carry them into effect Those who make honest, earnest effort to redeem their pledges will at least merit the respect of their constituents and the approval of their party, and those who do not may rest assured that they will no be forgotten should they aspire to official position again.

THE DIRECT TAX.

There seems to have been no necessity whatever for the present Legislature to pass a resolution accepting the sum of money appropriated by Congress to refund the direct tax to Nevada, except to give Claim Agent John Mullen five per cent. of the amount for doing nothing The Legislature of 1891 passed a concurrent resolution accepting the amount appropriated by Congress in full satisfaction of all claims against the United States on account of the levy and collection of the Direct tax, and authorizing the Governor to receive the amount appropriated subject to the conditions imposed by the act of Congress.

Though New York and other Eastern States, and California also, applied for and received from the United States Treasury the amount due them under the refunding bill, Nevada, so far as is known, made no move in the matter, probably because Claim Agent Mullen was not provided for in the resolution

Cannon, the goldbug Congressman from Illinois, and Senator Bacon of that State have been rivals in the Republican party in their State for years. Cannon attributes his defeat for re-election last November to the opposition or apathy of Bacon, who was defeated for the nomination by Cannon The two political lions met at Springfield last Wednesday and as the Senator passed the Congressman the latter struck at him. A rapid interchange of blows followed, in regular prize ring style until Cannon was knocked out, and fell heavily to the ground. Cannon's face was much damaged and bled profusely, and Bacon escaped without a scratch.

Gladstone made a speech in the British House of Commons in opposition to an amendment to the Queen's speech and in favor of giving a Home Rule bill precedence, and he was sustained by a vote of 312 to 228, a result that was hailed with hearty cheers by the supporters of the new ministers.

W. V. ALLEN, the Populist just elected United States Senator from Nebraska, is a native of Madison county, Ohio, where he was born January 28, 1847. He served in the war and is a Grand Army man. He is an enthusiastic advocate of Populist principles and was elected Judge of the Ninth Judicial District of Nebraska by that party.

Leading cattlemen of Montana estimate that the losses of cattle in that State from the storms and cold weather will be at least 25 per cent.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS!

Matters of Interest From Home and Abroad.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The Vice President presented to the Senate a memorial of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce favoring the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands and it was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was ordered printed and after an executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

After routine business was disposed of the House proceeded in the Committee of the Whole to the consideration of the invalid pension appropriation bill. Mueller, in charge of the bill, stated the appropriation recommended was $166 400,000.

It was proposed to amend the measure so the amount would be reduced to $166,090,000. This is the heaviest appropriation bill that had ever been before the American Congress. The Committee on Appropriations come to the conclusion that that there should be some retrenchment. The committee recommended several amendments which it was thought would institute reform. The first providing for the transfer of pensions from the Interior to the War Department.

The Pension Bureau could not be taken out of politics until it was put where political influence did not count. Mulheur then proceeded to argue in support of the changes in the pension law recommended by the Committee on Appropriations.

Grout opposed the transfer of the Pension Bureau.

Fairney favored the proposed amendment.

Without closing the general debate the Committee rose and the House took a recess. An evening session was held for the consideration of private pension bills.

The Queen Wants Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—With regard to the story published this morning to the effect that Liliuokalani was willing to abdicate and withdraw all claims on the payment of indemnity by the United States, it may be said that while this Government, in the event of its assuming charge of the islands, will doubtless provide for her and the young Princess by an annuity or otherwise, there will be no provision made for indemnifying her for any crown property of which she may be dispossessed by annexation.

All members of the Cabinet were present at a meeting to-day which lasted nearly an hour. The principal topic of discussion was the action of Minister Stevens in establishing a protectorate over the Hawaiian Islands It is not believed any definite action will be taken approving or disapproving Minister Stevens' action until the inv before the departure of the next steamer for the islands, the 14th instant,

Secretary of State Foster intimated that the Government had plenty of time to act in a deliberate manner, and while the approval or disapproval of Stevens' action was necessary, yet, in view of the impossibility of reaching him, other than by mail, communication in the immediate action in the premises is not deemed necessary.

Destructive Snow Slides.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 10 —Reports from Southern Colorado tell of the continuation of the blockade of railroads by snow which in many districts is still falling. Snow slides are numerous and one near Silverton this morning did considerable damage.

A stage coach was swept over the side of the mountain near Ouray, but the passengers escaped.

In Western Colorado the storm is the heaviest experienced

A slide near Breckenridge to-day killed two men and injured four others, a snow plow on the South Park Road being swept from the track.

Near Crested Butte two Italian laborers were lost in a slide this afternoon.

The passenger train from Monarch to Salida, due this afternoon, had not arrived up to a late hour this evening.

Homestead Trials

PITTSBURG, Feb. 10 —Henry Bauer and Carl K Nold, two anarchists convicted yesterday of conspiracy to incite a riot at Homestead, were again placed on trial today as accessories before the fact to the shooting of Chairman H. C Frick of the Carnegie Company. Bergman was the principal witness for the defense. He denied positively that either defendants were acquainted with the crime A number of officers were examined who told of the arrest of defendants and conversations with them later. The Judge charged the jury, favoring acquittal more than conviction. The jury retired, and after waiting for their return until 4 50 o'clock the Court adjourned until morning.

Monday morning Hugh O'Donnell will be placed on trial for murder.

Wholesale Prosecution Ordered.

SPRINGFIELD, Feb 10.—Acting Governor Gill this afternoon ordered the prosecution of all State Treasurers and Auditors since the adoption of the Constitution in 1890 for irregularities in the offices in pocketing interest on public funds, misappropriating insurance fees and other perquisites which should have been turned into the State Treasury. Twelve ex-State officials and nearly one hundred bondsmen are involved. The acting Governor declares two millions of dollars were illegally sequestered from the public treasury.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 10.—The forecast for Nevada is fair weather followed by rain or snow, temperature cooler.

Silver Purchase.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 —The Treasury Department to-day purchased 580,000 ounces of silver at $0 8400.

Things Wise and Otherwise.

Communicated.

Bacon is worth eighteen cents a pound at retail stores in Reno. A car load of fat hogs was shipped to San Francisco night before last to be sold there at about five and a half cents a pound. Freight deducted, the farmer gets about five cents a pound. The hogs will be slaughtered there and the meat cured and shipped back for use here at eighteen cents a pound.

Won't some one teach our people to kill hogs and cure the meat in salt water and smoke it to "our taste," and thereby save to our people sixty per cent. of the cost of living?

It would be in order now to ascertain what has been done with the "Park Fund," How the five thousand dollars of bonds were disposed of? What the parks have cost, and how much land has been purchased from William Thompson? What the price was, if any price has been fixed; if not what will be done with the ten hundred dollar bond proposed by Mr. Foley, and how much more will be needed?

It may as well be understood that by the State is meant the people of the State, and by the Ship of State the people in the State; and when the captain abandons the people and their expressed opinions, he abandons the ship. In Washoe county a desire for new laws and new county expenses to be met by the taxable property of the county, may as well originate with the people who have got to pay the debts. It may interest taxpayers in Washoe county to know what is meant by Mr. Foley's bill "to determine the legality of the claims against Washoe county" now that there is no money in the general fund. In 1890 the people of Washoe county paid into the county treasury for revenue $143 500. Estimating 1891 and 1892 at the same figure, the people of Washoe county have in three years contributed to the State and county governments $430 500, and now find the general fund exhausted, the road fund $8,000 in debt and our State Senator promoting a bill to legalize the expenditure of this enormous amount of money which six thousand people have contributed in three years. What claims against Washoe county does Mr. Foley seek to legalize? It is well known that the County Auditor in 1892 audited specific bills monthly for meals at the Riverside Hotel, two dollars per month, The Board of County Commissioners allowed the bills. It is also well known that such bills are illegal, and that an action will lie against the Auditor and each member of the Board of Commissioners for money illegally paid out of the treasury. It is also well known that it is the duty of the District Attorney to proceed to collect this money and have it returned and covered into the treasury. (See General Statutes of Nevada, page 2008, Sections 2002 and 2003)

In two years the people of Washoe county have paid over $24 000 into the Road Fund and the fund is $8 000 in debt, making an expenditure of over $32,000, averaging $1,333 per month or $44 per day. Are these road claims the claims that Mr, Foley seeks to legalize ?

Wouldn't it be just as well to build street crossings and gravel our streets and build walk that every person uses and needs as to build parks which no person needs?—It is time to draw the line between public taxation and private thrift

When new laws are wanted for the State they should be discussed in public campaigns; when county or local laws are wanted they should be discussed in the localities interested and in all cases should originate with the people and not as now with unknown parties,

FUN COMES HIGH.

What Bill Nye's Income Amounts To

Fun comes high, sometimes, but the American people must have it, and a man whose supply of the genuine article seems inexhaustible, is in demand. Bill Nye receives $20,000 annually for his weekly letters, which are published in hundreds of papers throughout the country, and by going "on the road" a few weeks, delighting crowded houses nightly, he almost doubles this income, besides which he derives a royalty from his books and drama. Mr Nye's salary for his part of the entertainment which will regale our people on Monday evening, the 20th instant, is the largest ever paid a humorist, and it is a piece of good fortune that the combination was secured for this city, since its season is of limited length, and the demand for engagements exceeds the supply.

Abietine Remedies.

The Abietine remedies, which can be procured at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store, are compounded from the gum of the Abietine tree, which grows in a limited area of the Sierra Nevada near Oroville, California, and Yerba Santa, and other medicinal plants found in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada. Santa Abie is the best known remedy for coughs, colds and lung trouble, and is almost a specific for catarrh. Give these remedies a fair trial and you will become convinced of their efficacy.

Damage by Floods.

VISALIA, Feb. 10.—The high water today washed away several bridges across the St. John and Kaweah rivers. The Cain and Encina orchards are flooded, doing great damage. The lands of the Mineral King Fruit Co,, three miles northeast of town, are covered with water and numerous headgates and ditches are washed away. Visalia levee is broken in several places but the city is safe from inundation without another rise of water. Reports from Tule river state that all bridges across the stream are washed away. Travel between this city and the Exeter East Side railroad station is closed by the high water. The damage to bridges above the city will cost the county from $15,000 to $20,000. The entire damage in the county will probably amount to $30,000.

Thirty-Four Bodies Recovered.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 10.—To-night in the chapel of the county farm building on the settees which heretofore held devout worshippers lie what can be found of thirty-four fearfully burned and charred bodies. Others who are known to have perished in the flames of the insane asylum fire last night have not yet been found, for the cellar is full of water and debris The search in the ruins will be continued tomorrow.

James McIntosh of Paradise, shipped a carload of hogs from Winnemucca to San Francisco a few days ago. The Silver State says the railroad company has reduced the rate on hogs and it now pays to ship them.

HOW MANY deaths have been the result of treating with unscrupulous demagogues.

How many deaths have been caused by the use of poison (morphine, acconite, strychnine, beladonna, etc)

In how many cases has death been hastened by the use of mineral (mercury, iron, zinc, chloral).

In how many cases have men and women been ruined for life by the use of the ever ready knife, at the hands of a so-called Specialist.

How many people there are who go from doctor to doctor and from hospital to hospital, suffering from a complication of diseases, and being treated for first one thing and then another, and never realizing the least benefit. Never in any case having received anything but a combination of mineral poison, and as a consequence, accelerated misery and distress.

To such the discovery of a doctor who understands his or her case, who applies a common sense treatment and relieves the sufferer from pain and distress by Nature's remedies, is like a flash of heavenly light from a dark and overcast sky.

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Another Severe Storm Coming—The Edenic Age on Venus.

Copyrighted 1893 by W. T. Foster.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 10, 1893.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of a storm wave to cross the continent from the 11th to the 15th, and the next will reach the Pacific Coast about the 16th, cross the western mountains by the close of the 17th, the great central valleys from the 18th to the 20th and the eastern states about the 21st.

This storm will be the most severe west of the Mississippi about the 18th and 19th, and very cold weather for this time of the year will precede it, crossing the continent from the 14th to the 17th.

A cold wave will follow this storm crossing the western mountains about the 19th and the great western valleys about the 21st and the eastern states about the 23d. This will be the last of the winter storms in the northern states and the weather will become warmer very rapidly, forcing the crop season from that condition usually called late to the other extreme called early Spring.

As a rule I publish my weather letters in only one paper in each congressional district and as these letters are copyrighted other papers cannot copy them without being liable to damages, therefore as a matter of business, papers that cannot obtain my letters, ridicule them in order to keep their subscribers from going to the papers that do publish them. My weather letters are too well established, however, for this selfishness to injure them.

VENUS' EDEN TIME.

The beautiful silvery bright planet Venus is now in her Edenic age, because she is covered by dense cloud belts very similiar to those that envelop Jupiter. The body of Venus is never seen and the astronomers widely differ as to the period of its revolution. Some say that it always keeps the same side always to the sun, thus making a revolution once in 256 days. Others say, and this is taught in all the schools, that Venus revolves on its axes in a little less than 24 hours.

Astronomers have observed a dark spot on Venus similar to that which I have described as revolving around Jupiter and they have concluded that this spot is one of Venus' mountains. Just as well say that Pikes Peak reaches out through the earth's atmosphere.

That spot on Venus is a moon-comet revolving around and very near the solid body of the planet. The moon-comet is the cause of the deep cloud belts that hide the body of Venus from view. That moon-comet attendant of Venus has often been observed and the reason that it is not now seen is that its electric forces have vaporized the waters and other volatile elements of Venus so rapidly that they have expanded to that moon-comet of Venus and enveloped it.

It is a law in astronomical electricity that satellites, by the slow accumulation of static electricity, called the electrosphere, are very slowly floated further and further away from their primaries as is the case with our moon. But while 100 years would make no perceptible change in a moon's orbit, it would, if the moon was very near its primary, make a great change in its cloud belts by evaporation, therefore the theory I have advanced above is supported by scientific facts and logical arguments.

PROCTER'S THEORY.

Here is what Procter says about Venus possessing a moon:

"Here we may pause to consider one of the most perplexing enigmas that has ever been presented to astronomers. Are we indeed certain that Venus has no moon? The question seems a strange one when it is remembered that year after year Venus has been examined by the most eminent modern observers, armed with telescopes of most exquisite defining power, without any trace of a companion orb being noticed. And yet if I had begun this paragraph by stating the evidence in favor of the existence of a satellite, I believe that nearly every reader would have come to the conclusion that most certainly the Planet of Love has an attendant orb.

"They are not amateur observers only who have seen a moon attending on Venus but such astronomers as Cassini and Short, the latter with two different telescopes and four different eye pieces. Four times between May 3 and 11, 1761, Montagus saw a body near Venus which presented a half moon phrase similar to that of the planet and precisely as a satellite would have done.

"In March, 1764, Rodkier saw the enigmatical companion. Horrebow saw it a few days later and Montbaron saw it in varying positions on March 15th, 28th and 29th. Lastly Schouton, who witnessed the transit of Venus in 1851, declares that he saw a satellite accompany Venus across the face of the sun."

The above statements by eminent astronomers are strong evidences that Venus has a moon-comet which in the course of long ages will recede far enough from the planet to permit its cloud belts to precipitate, and then will come the end of that planet's Edenic age by a great flood, the appearance of the great lights, the return of day and night, seasons, seed-time and harvest, and then for the first time since its moon-comet came to the planet will the rainbow of promise appear in the heavens just as did our rainbow after our moon-comet had receded from the earth a sufficient distance to permit the cloud belts to precipitate, causing a flood and the clearing of the skies permitting the great lights to be seen.

All this accords with present known facts while the absurd idea that planets came from cooled rings that once surrounded the sun, and moons from cooled crusts that once surrounded the planets are theories not in accord with anything now known to exist in the heavens.

Prof. Procter says that creation has always been in progress as we now see it, the larger bodies growing by the accessions of smaller ones.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE PASSION FLOWER.

BY MARTHA J WRIGHT

It was reported how a man
Walked over his plantation,
In India—in a foreign land—
In deepest meditation.

He viewed daily lovely scenes—
They were quite enchanting;
On Hindus' sacred soil he lived,
Yet there was something lacking,

He sent for passion-flower seed—
This would give him pleasure;
A souvenir of his far-off home
Would be a lasting treasure.

They came safely to his hand;
He thought it quite his duty
To keep them; not to lend or sell—
Have monopoly of their beauty.

Time passed; the harvest came;
The ripened seeds were each a fairy,
Rejoicing in their liberty,
On their mission did not tarry.

They flew o'er garden fence and wall,
Intent on mercy only,
Not wishing that their neighbors be
So very, very lonely.

On, on they speed, these little sprites,
To jungle, crack and cranny,
Upon the mountain leaped for joy,
On errands always canny.

How true it is that beauty lives
Beyond our finite measure—
It lives and grows to bless mankind
A faithful, joyful treasure.

Deserves Attention.

If you have money to invest in Reno real estate, either in large or small amounts, the Reno Real Estate and Investment Company offers most particular inducements to you. By investing in its shares of stock you participate in its investments which are governed by its able and experienced Board of Trustees, consisting of Mr. C. T. Bender, Mr. Sol Levy, Mr. C. C. Powning, Mr. Geo. F. Turrittin and Mr. A. G. Fletcher. The principle object of the company is to purchase and improve centrally located business property in the city of Reno. Everyone is of one mind as to the desirability of such investments.

The company is incorporated with a capital of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares of the par value of five dollars each, and from its already large list of share holders there is every reason to believe that it is destined to become one of the most flourishing companies in the State. Of its 20,000 shares there have been 12,000 sold since August 1st.

Its shares are sold upon the monthly installment plan of ten cents per share, installments to range over a period of fifty months. In this way persons of moderate means are enabled to combine and participate in investments that usually only fall to the lot of the fortunate capitalist. Mr F. M. Lee, the Secretary of the company, will be pleased to furnish any desired information.

A Silk Dress to be Given Away.

Charley Blethen will give his usual dance in connection with the skating rink Saturday evening. The last of the big candle will be burned that evening, and another feature will be added. The successful lady guesser in a guessing problem to be hereafter announced, will be given a fine silk pattern sixteen yards long and twenty-two inches wide. A large crowd should be in attendance, and there probably will be.

AN AUTUMN MELODY.

What notes of what ditty can sound from the city,
From out of the dust and the din,
Where the sun's pallid taper is dim through the vapor
That shrouds all the sorrow and sin?
At evening I listen—the murky lamps glisten,
The stars peep by two and by three;
The harsh Babel noises replace your sweet voices,
Dear seal

Yet past the fog curtain, I know it for certain,
The barn roofs have caught the last ray;
The smoke of the threshing is softly enmeshing
Brown gables with delicate gray;
The red leaves are falling, the plovers are calling,
The sea wind is salt o'er the wold;
The bryonies blacken, the tufts of green bracken
Turn gold.

O scents that redouble where slow through the stubble
The plow cleaves a pathway of hope!
O woods fading yellow, and orchards grown mellow,
And flocks on the faraway slope!
O sea songs that mingle on bowsider and shingle,
O fields that of old time I knew!
My heart swells to bursting with infinite thirsting
For you.

—M. C. Gillington in Chambers' Journal.

A Poser for Biologists.

The members of the medical profession in Hamilton are greatly interested in a remarkable surgical operation which took place in the west end of the city about a week ago. It is said that the case is in some of its features so curious as to be unprecedented.

A little girl, three years of age, was troubled with what appeared to be a tumor rapidly growing out of the small of her back. The growth was soft, and had all the characteristics of a fatty tumor, excepting that there was a well defined bone of triangular shape embedded in it. The supposed tumor was the shape of a sugar loaf, with an indentation at the crown. It was about six inches in diameter, and stood out from the back fully five inches. It was decided to have it removed. Seven city doctors were present at the operation. It was not successful; the child died thirty-six hours afterward.

The dissection of the mysterious growth and the postmortem held on the child's body revealed some remarkable facts. A portion of the spinal column was wanting, and from the cavity the growth proceeded. There was in the supposed tumor evidence of the beginning of another and independent life, rudimentary organs having already been formed. If no operation had been performed this independent life would have continued to grow until, no doubt, it would have developed into a monstrosity and ultimately caused death.—Hamilton Spectator

A Story About the Pansy.

A pretty fable about the pansy is current among French and German children. The flower has five petals and five sepals. In most pansies, especially of the earlier and less highly developed varieties, two of the petals are plain in color and three are gay. The two plain petals have a single sepal, two of the gay petals have a sepal each, and the third, which is the largest of all, has two sepals. The fable is that the pansy represents a family consisting of husband, wife and four daughters, two of the latter being stepchildren of the wife.

The plain petals are the stepchildren, with only one chair; the two small gay petals are the daughters, with a chair each, and the large gay petal is the wife, with two chairs. To find the father one must strip away the petals until the stamens and pistils are bare. They have a fanciful resemblance to an old man with a flannel wrap about his neck, his shoulders upraised and his feet in a bathtub.—Detroit Free Press.

The Death of Jumbo.

The story told by Scott, the keeper who went to America with Jumbo, of the elephant's death is sad The animals were being loaded while the circus was performing, and Scott was walking Jumbo along the railroad between two rows of trucks.

There was another elephant with them—a dwarf elephant bought in Singapore in 1883 to be "clown elephant." Jumbo would not go anywhere without him. On this occasion the small elephant was going in front, and when the train came round the curve Jumbo caught hold of his chum and pushed him between two freight trucks. This saved the small one, who only got his leg broken, but Jumbo was badly cut up by the heavy locomotive and died about an hour after.—St. James Budget.

Seeking Safety in a Lion's Den.

A serious disturbance occurred on the Place de Jaude at Clermont Ferrand on a late Tuesday evening. A negro tamer of the American circus named Jackers quarreled with and stabbed a workman. He then took to flight, pursued by a large crowd whose object was to lynch him. Saved from the crowd by the police, Jackers took refuge in a lion's cage in the circus. The tent was immediately surrounded by an exasperated multitude, who had a regular fight with the police and a number of soldiers.

The authorities succeeded with great difficulty in preventing the rioters from cutting the ropes holding the scaffolding of the circus together. After several hours order was restored and Jackers, who had been calmly awaiting the end of the disturbance under the guard of his lion Sultan, came out of the cage and gave himself up to the police.—London Public Opinion.

The Difficulty of Becoming a Dutchman.

The second chamber of the Dutch legislature has passed a bill which will make it more difficult for a foreigner to become a Dutchman. Naturalization will no longer be a personal matter, but will concern the entire family, who will, however, only receive acknowledgment as Dutch in the second generation after the settlement. Ten years' absence from the country without a declaration of the intention to remain a Dutchman will cause the loss of the nationality

"German Syrup"

Croup. We have selected two or three lines from letters freshly received from parents who have given German Syrup to their children in the emergencies of Croup. You will credit these, because they come from good, substantial people, happy in finding what so many families lack—a medicine containing no evil drug, which mother can administer with confidence to the little ones in their most critical hours, safe and sure that it will carry them through.

ED. L. WILLITS, of Alma, Neb. I give it to my children when troubled with Croup and never saw any preparation act like it. It is simply miraculous.

Mrs. JAS. W. KIRK, Daughters' College, Harrodsburg, Ky. I have depended upon it in attacks of Croup with my little daughter, and find it an invaluable remedy.

Fully one-half of our customers are mothers who use Boschee's German Syrup among their children. A medicine to be successful with the little folks must be a treatment for the sudden and terrible foes of childhood, whooping cough, croup, diphtheria and the dangerous inflammations of delicate throats and lungs.

Rising Canary Birds.

In Germany the poorer classes are nearly all engaged in raising canaries. Several hundred thousand are shipped every year to all parts of the world. There is no industry like it in existence. The birds are strong and hardy and require very little attention; consequently among the peasantry every family has is aviary, which is a constant source of income, independent of the proceeds of their daily toil. The buyers for the New York houses make periodical trips through the country; the birds are bought and are soon on their way to America, where they quickly become accustomed to their gilded cages.—Pittsburg Record.

Shapes for Folding Napkins.

About 1650 Pierre David published the "Maistre d'Hostel," "which teaches how to wait on a table properly, and how to fold all kinds of table napkins in all kinds of shapes."

The shapes were: "Square, twisted, folded in bands and in the forms of a double and twisted shell, single shell, double melon, single melon; cock, hen and chickens; two chickens, pigeon in a basket, partridge, pheasant, two capons in a pie, hare, two rabbits, sucking pig, dog with a collar, pike, carp, turbot, miter, turkey, tortoise, the holy cross and the Lorraine cross."—Youth's Companion.

The Governor of Tennessee.

Judge Turney, governor of Tennessee, though he has been on the supreme bench for twenty-two years, is a farmer. He has a magnificent old typical southern home in Franklin county known as Wolf's Crag. He is sixty-five years old, 6 feet 4 inches tall, has broad shoulders and weighs 260 pounds. He wears a full, short gray beard. With the exception of a slight rheumatic affection he is hale and hearty. His rheumatism has caused him to abandon deer and fox hunting, of which he has been a great lover. At Wolf's Crag he has his pack of dogs and the horses which have carried him on many a fox hunt.

For years he has been noted as the best deer shot in the state. Men who have been with him on the hunt say he can bring down a deer running at full speed 100 yards distant. He is one of the people. All over the state he is known as "Old Pete Turney." It was his county under his leadership which first seceded from the Union. Before the state of Tennessee had seceded he had organized the first Tennessee regiment and gone to the front. Though many times offered promotion, he declined to leave his regiment and went through the war as colonel of the First Tennessee. At the battle of Seven Pines he was shot through the face.—New York World.

Soulless Corporations.

Child—I don't believe the canal companies cares much for children.

Mother—Why not?

Child—In the summer they put the water in, so we'll get drowned, and in the winter they let the water out, so we can't skate.—Good News.

"Peter Piper Picked a Peck of Pickled Peppers," was a line of illiterative nonsense that the children used to say. Nowadays they can practice on the Perfect, Painless, Powerful Properties of Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. It will impress a fact which will be useful to know. These Pellets cure sick headache, billious attacks, indigestion constipation and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They are tiny, sugar-coated pills, easy to take, and, as a laxative, one is sufficient for a dose. No more groans and gripes from the old drastic remedies! Pierce's Purgative Pellets are as painless as they are perfect in their effects.
